Request to amend lawsuit and have the Federal court/US Marshals serve all Additional defendants

Dear Honorable Judge Karas:

Am writing to inquire on the status of my September 7, 2018 to amend my federal discrimination lawsuit to include the additional plaintiffs.

Enclosed please find my September 7, 2018 letter to the court requesting permission to amend and seeking the Federal Court to have the Marshall Service serve the additional parties.

Left two telephone messages for your staff last week to follow-up on the status of this request but have not heard back from your honor's part. There are multiple precedence setting cases where a Judge or administrator can be sued individual for their administrative denial of meaning access to the disabled under title two of the ADA including Ramon Badillo Santiago, M.D. v. Hon. Jose Andreu Garcia case No. 98-1993 (SEC,) Forrester v. White, 484 U.S. 219, 224-225 (1988), Cameron v. Seitz, 38 F. 3d 264, 271 (6th Circuit 1994,) Morrison v. Lipscomb, 38 F. 3d 264, 271 (6th Circuit. 1994). versus Badillo, versus Georgia, Prakar Versus Indiana 100 F. Supp. 3d 661 (2015.).

Please through the in forma "pauperis" status granted by your honor in the beginning of this case have the US Marshalls/Federal Court serve the additional defendants unless Lisa Evans accepts service for all the new defendants.

Thank you for your assistance.

Very Truly Yours,

Marc Fishman
